

The House that “Lugard Built”

Perspectives on Nigeria's First Centenary: The Pains, the Gains, and the Agenda for the future

Edited by: S.U. Fwatshak & Olayemi Akinwumi

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface -----	iv
Chapter one Amalgamation Discourses in the “Lugardian House” During Nigeria's First Centenary
S. U. Fwatshak and J.M. Ayuba-----	1
Chapter Two The Middle-Belt and Lugard's Amalgamation: A Centenary Reflection
Monday Yakiban Mangvwat-----	35
Chapter Three A Promise Unfulfilled: Economy and Society in Twentieth Century North-East, Nigeria
Professor I. L. Bashir-----	54
Chapter Four Ndi Igbo of the South-East: Centenary Glimpses
Ijoma Okoro-----	83
Chapter Five 100 Years of the South –South Zone in the Political Economy of Nigeria: The Pains and Gains
CBN Ogbogbo-----	100
Chapter Six Perspectives of the South-West on the Centenary: The Gains and Pains since Amalgamation and the Agenda for the Future
Prof. Siyan Oyeweso-----	124

Chapter Seven
The North-West

S. U. Fwatshak-----157

Index-----181